THEY look scary, but the freaky folk from Adam Internet are really lovely souls.

The good people of the company, including Rebecca Razzano aka Wednesday Adams, chairman Greg Hicks (Uncle Fester) and Sharon Tedore (Cousin It), are holding a gala dinner fundraiser for Variety, the Children's Charity, tonight to coincide with - you guessed it - Friday the 13th.

Guests, decked out in fancy dress or formal wear, will be bidding for major auction items including an Adam Internet Double Decker Bus Experience.

Plus there will also be a spooky silent auction.
